TEN CENTS

De Gaulle, Aides Confer In Crisis; Speculation Ebbs

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle conferred with Premier Maurice Couve-de-Murville and Finance Minister Francois-Xavier Ortoll on the European financial crisis today amid signs that the speculative fever was subsiding.

European money markets opened with heavy pressure on the British pound but on an otherwise quiet note following Couve-de-Murville's confident statement that the Western industrialized world would permit the French franc to collapse.

In a nationwide television interview Monday night, Couve de Mury-Murville partly blamed France's unbalanced budget for France's economic problems and announced austerity measures including a credit squeeze and cuts in subsidies to railroads and other public utilities.

Taxes Planned

BONN, Germany (AP) — Leaving the mark at its present value, the government announced tonight plans to clamp on immediate taxation measures to curb exports and ease imports to help the international balance of payments situation.

The chief government spokesman, Guenther Diehl, said Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger had decided on revaluation of the mark after urgent consultations with his top advisors.

Couve de Murville said nothing specific about how he intended to stop speculation on the franc. Some financial experts said they were not convinced by his confidence in the absence of concrete measures to maintain monetary stability.

There was still complete secrecy over decisions which may have been taken at the weekend meeting in Basel, Switzerland, of the governors of the leading central banks.

Continuing uncertainty over the central bank's counterattack may have been more than the "spine" to dampen last week's speculative fever.

On French money markets, the franc was again quoted at its official floor level of 4.9740 to the dollar this morning, while the German-mark remained slightly above the official ceiling of 125.2800. The peso dropped to its lowest point to 11.8460, the lowest level for six months.

Swiss money markets opened quiet and the French franc even showed a fractional improvement by noon. However, Swiss banks were still limiting purchases of French currency bills.

Frankfurt money dealers said the situation was unchanged from Monday, with continuing pressure on dollars, pounds and French francs caused by speculation that the German mark would rise.

However, in Brussels dealers predicted that the mark speculation was bound to slow down because dealers found it increasingly costly to hold large amounts of German currency in expectation of a revaluation that may never come.

Nonetheless, Couve de Murville's television statement did little to convince financial experts in France that the government was in a position to put its economic house in order with austerity measures. Some of the present crop of experts said Couve de Murville's assurance of unlimited international backing for the franc would do anything to stop the speculation on a mark revaluation, which they see as the principal immediate cause of the monetary crisis.

Red Rocket Attack Pounds U.S. Base

SAIGON (AP) — At least 30 rounds of heavy rockets were fired into U.S. military installations near Da Nang late today in the second such attack in three days.

One of the rockets triggered a brilliant pillar of flame when it struck what may have been a South Vietnamese army ordnance depot. Otherwise, there were no reports of damage or casualties where the missile arched from the burning plane, but two were injured seriously.

Twenty miles south of Da Nang, U.S. Marine scouts spotted groups of 80 and 75 khaki-uniformed soldiers on the move and called in Marine artillery.

The U.S. Command and Artillery, Marines, killed 48 of the enemy and sent off eight secondary explosions, indicating ammunition was hit.

Five miles closer to Da Nang, South Vietnamese infantrymen swooping down on them, they all died Sunday, according to the town of Dien Ban found another 103 North Vietnamese bodies, a spokesman said.

In the same general area, a U.S. Marine and Vietnamese civil action team fought off a small attack and killed five.

North Vietnamese forces were captured at Payne Mortuary, Burley.

One battle was South of Da Nang, where the Vietnamese area commander says the enemy's command has started its withdrawal to the north.

The other was 15 miles west of Saigon, where a South Vietnamese force is trying to capture a Viet Cong stronghold near the Cambodian border.

On the political front, the Saigon government appeared moving slowly toward a decision to accept the peace plan proposed by the government to the government — Nguyen-Van Thieu has decided he has to end his

Emotions Run High At Community Forum Debate On Council Of Churches

By O. J. SMITH
Times-News Managing Editor

Emotions ran a bit high Monday night as a scheduled debate on the National Council of Churches—the final session of the Community Forum series—alighted on a heated discussion of fundamentalism in the churches today.

There was no undue public display of temper on anyone's part, but the strident feelings between the two sides hung heavy over the lecture room at Shields Hall, the College of Southern Idaho academic building.

And it finally wound up with presenting the side of the NCC, championing his opponent, Dr. Donald A. Waite, with "outright fabrication."

Dr. Waite, director of the Radio and Audio-Film Commission of the American Council of Christian Churches, whose home is in New Jersey, had been bluntly critical of NCC leadership, including pastoreans leaders of the member churches, as immoral, communist dupes who had strayed from the fundamentalism of religion as seen by his own group.

In purporting to document this position, he referred to the Rev. Dr. R. W. Spike, who in 1933 in Columbus, Ohio, Rev. Spike was an official of the National Council of Churches.

Rev. Waite claimed the murderer was a victim of homosexual passion, with both the murderer and the victim involved in the homosexuality.

It was at this point that Dr. Burns, assistant general secretary for development of the National Council of Churches, came to New York to meet Dr. Waite. According to his account, Dr. Waite, including pastoreans and leaders of the member churches, as immoral, communist dupes who had strayed from the fundamentalism of religion as seen by his own group.

Activity, until the forum session was opened to questions from the floor, the debate was

BULLETIN

BOISE (AP) — Orville E. Stiles, warden of the Idaho State Penitentiary, was dismissed today by the State Board of Corrections. Operation of the prison has been subject to criticism in recent weeks because of a high rate of escapes, with about 30 inmates walking away this year. The board declined formal comment on the dismissal of Stiles.

BOISE (AP) — Gov. Don W. Samuelson proposed today using up to $5 million of Idaho's anticipated general fund surplus to complete the new state penitentiary as rapidly as possible.

Only so doing, so he told a news conference, can the prison solve some of the problems he said it is facing.

The problems, he said, stem largely from the fact the prison is operating installations at the new rural site south of Boise which he was a door gunner collided with another helicopter, crashed and burned.

He was born Oct. 24, 1947, at Burley. He graduated from Burley High School in 1966.

He attended Ricks College one year prior to entering the service. During the summer of 1965, he was with the Idaho Forest Service at the Youth Conservation Camp, Priest Lake, Idaho.

The summer of 1967 he worked with the Hotshot fire crew of the U.S. Forest Service which flew to fires all over the Western U.S. He entered the service in January of 1968 and received his basic training at Ft. Lewis, Wash. He attended the Army Aviation Center at Fort Rucker, Ala., from which he graduated in June. This school was for helicopter piloting and maintenance. He was in the top one-third of his class. Following graduation he received his helicopter wings and was promoted to crew chief. He was a member of the 101st Copter Crew and at the time of his death was an elder in the Burley LDS First Ward.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verl K. Larson, two brothers, Rick Larson and Kevin Larson, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Metta Hansen, Burley.

Funeral services are pending at Payne Mortuary, Burley.

Catholic Priest To Receive Medal

Heyburn Man Honored At Reserve Meet; Posthumous Awards Given To Family

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Roman Catholic priest identified as the chaplain who won the nation's highest military medal in Vietnam is among the five latest recipients of the decoration.

Capt. Angelo J. Litkey, who received the nation's top military decoration today from President Johnson, was credited with carrying more than 1,000 wounded men to safety during one spot Dec. 6 when the company he was with came under heavy fire near Phuoc Lac.

Litkey, 37, of Jacksonville, Fla., received neck and foot wounds.

Wendell To Participate In Clinic

WENDELL — Members of the Wendell High School band and mixed chorus have been selected to attend the annual high school clinic to be held in Twin Falls Nov. 22-23.

David Sellers, band director of the University of Idaho, will be in charge of the band clinic. Dr. William Rasmussen, choral instructor at Utah State, will be director for the choir.

Thomas Haggerty, Wendell band director, is band clinic director. Richard Price, Wood River high school is chairman of the choir section.

Members of the mixed chorus selected are LeAnn Barrus, Ron Jessie, Ernie Sites, Jerry Ray, Scott Burks, Leah Geissler and Terry Klimes.

The students will practice all day Friday. Saturday morning and afternoon will be used for practice and rehearsal for an evening concert.

2 Men Promoted

BOISE — Two Twin Falls men were promoted in November, Commandant Col. Kenneth E. Nording, commander of the 124th Fighter Group at Gowen Field near here.

Promoted to Sgt. Maj. was Gregory L. Mauss and named Airmen 1 C. was Paul D. Sliger.

Both men are members of the unit.

He is only the second chaplain to win the medal.

Giving the medal were Spec. 4 Gary G. Wetzel, 21, of Oak Creek, Wis.; Spec. 4 D. W. Johnson, 21, of Detroit, Mich.; Spt. Sammy L. Davis, 22, of Martinsville, Ind., and Capt. James A. Call, 21, native, stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

The awards brought to 61 the number of medals of Honor presented during the Vietnam war.

Wetzel, a helicopter gunner, lost an arm when rockets exploded near him Jan. 1. But he wiped out an enemy automatic weapon's emplacement and dragged his commander to safety.

Johnson, a tank crewman, fought with a pistol, submachine gun and a rifle but to help a platoon under attack by a batallion-sized enemy force near Dak To Jan. 15.

Davis' artillery battery was hit by a mortar attack and ground assault near Cai Lay Nov. 18, 1967. Despite a direct hit on his position and severe wounds, Davis kept his howitzer going, single-handedly to pull it across a river to rescue three wounded comrades.

Taylor ignored painful wounds to aid members of his armored cavalry squadron while under intense fire west of Que Son Nov. 9, 1967.

Court Asked To Exonerate Martin King

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed Monday to hear a claim by Adam Clayton Powell that his exclusion from the House in March 1967 was unconstitutional.

The surprising action may set the stage for a historical children between the court and Congress.

The appeal had sat on a back burner for months. When Powell was re-elected as his Harlem district earlier this month it was assumed that the court would certainly not consider that case.

The New York Democrat was excluded last year by a 307-116

vote after a select committee found him guilty of "gross misconduct" as a congressman and recommended that he be censured, fined and stripped of all seniority.

Powell, a Negro, was a veter-

Politics?

The cry of "politics" was heard in a lot of places when President Johnson announced an end to the bombing of North Vietnam at a time when Presidential Candidate Humphrey needed something new in the way of a voter getter.

Now the cry of "politics" is heard again. This time it is in connection with the announcement by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman and Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall of proposed changes in current methods of determining fees for livestock grazing on national forests and public lands under their administration.

The announcement does smack of politics. If for no other reason than the fact both department officials will be out of jobs when the new President takes over, it smacks of politics.

Of course there is the point that a 45-day period will be given to interested parties in submitting their comments to both secretaries before a final decision is made by the two departments.

And yet, without taking another breath, it is announced that the new forest service fees will go into effect in 1969 in all the Western States. And the BLM fees will also go into effect that year. So it looks like any comments those against the move might have will be wasted effort.

The action, according to the government agencies, is in accordance with the instructions contained in the Bureau of the Budget's circular A-25 dated Sept. 25, 1959. In the next few weeks the officials say that the fees have only been under study for the past two years. Why did it take seven years to get started?

There are some 47,000 grazing permits issued to farmers and ranchers by the two agencies. A lot of them are in Idaho. In all cases the cost rise would be substantial. In many cases there is no doubt that operators would have to quit business.

The fact that not much attention will be paid to the protests is clearly shown in a joint statement issued by the Secretaries:

"We want full industry and public review prior to putting these regulations into effect. When these regulations are approved, both agencies will use graduated increases."

And with a 45-day so-called waiting period the announcement of the increases in fees would come just prior to the inauguration of a new administration.

A stay of orders that would put into effect these increased grazing fees seems to be in order, under the circumstances. Fee increases, by themselves, are misguided.

There seems to be no real plan in this situation with the exception of raising the grazing fee price. No plan that is, unless it is to adopt it just before the present administration steps out.

Family Doctor

The week of November 17-23 has been designated "National Family Health Week" by presidential proclamation.

The President got the idea from Congress, which passed a resolution to that effect and which was in turn prompted by the American Academy of General Practice, the professional association of more than 30,000 general practitioners.

It may come as a surprise to those who thought that the GP was a vanishing breed to learn that there are still so many of them around. Not only is general practice alive and well, it is on the way to being upgraded into a medical specialty in its own right. Instead of becoming a GP more or less by default; a medical school graduate may one day take residency training to become a F.P.—a family practitioner, specializing in family medicine.

Right now the AAGP and the American Medical Association are at slight odds over what should constitute a family practitioner. In broad terms, however, he would be a "physician of first contact," which the academy believes every American family should have.

He would be a true family doctor, knowing all members of a family and understanding the family relationships which could have an effect on the physical and emotional well-being of each member. He would provide a continuity of treatment for his patients, from cradle to old age.

He would serve as a liaison between a patient and the vast variety of specialists and technicians who have advanced skills and training in special areas. Residency training of F.P.'s would be modeled closely as possible on actual family practice.

The AAGP wants Americans to think about the idea during National Family Health Week.

News From The Cold Front

WASHINGTON — Occasionally, there is good news from the Cold War front. One example has been offered exclusively by the story of how the United States espionage community knew almost as much about the Russians as Zond 5, the Soviet unmanned spacecraft which circled the moon last September and was brought back for a successful recovery in the Indian Ocean.

A joint memorandum from the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) and the State Department's Bureau of Intelligence and Research (INR), detailing what was known about Zond 5 was placed on President Johnson's desk in late July, nearly two months before the moon flight. The information in that memo... gathered by both electronic and human spies in Russia, has not been fully disclosed, but some of the details have been made available.

For instance, DIA/INR knew last June that the Russians had solved the problem of bringing down a space ship on water. Our military-diplomatic intelligence people also reported that the Soviets had suffered four failures in attempts to circle the moon before Zond 5 made it. (Later published reports said there had been only two failures.)

Some of this intelligence was the product of electronic eavesdropping on official Soviet communications. But most of it came from human agents, one of them installed in the super-

This year the stakes are much higher than in 1958. Dirksen is almost 73, has been in poor health for several years. He is a liberal, a neutralist who supports the liberal Scott, as he supported the now-defeated California Sen. Roman Hruska of Nebraska for the job of assistant Senate Republican leader.

But much will depend on what Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, the minority leader, decides to do. Sen. Dirksen, who has been influential to close friend Hruska, instead of quietly supporting him, Scott would probably be doomed.

Dirksen hasn't said how far he will go for Hruska. Scott backers have given the hope that others in the neutral camp will support the liberal Scott, as he supported the now-defeated California Sen. Thomas Kuchel, also a liberal, when Kuchel was elected assistant leader 10 years ago—instead, Dirksen is valuing suggesting that Scott might be considered named chairman of the GOP Senate Policy Committee.

In Washington or in Nixon headquarters in New York to disturb the Johnson-Nixon compact, Nixon should know it did not emanate from the White House or Mr. Johnson.

Harlow is the only Nixon intimate who has been seen on close terms with Mr. Nixon, his former mentor. Harlow will be on official leave-of-absence from Procter and Gamble, just as Neil McElroy was when he left that company to become Secretary of Defense. Procter and Gamble has no government contract.

Disagreement within the liberal Democratic Study Group (DSG) in the House all but guarantees that Speaker John W. McCormack will remain as the Speaker next year, even if the effort now being threatened to unseat him is successful.

At least one leading DSG member, Rep. Philip Burton of California, has told DSG chairman James O'Hara of Michigan that he will oppose any fight against the aging (76 next month) speaker.

The DSG members met on Wednesday and decided that if they could make a close contest of it—that is, come within 20 votes or so—they might challenge McCormack.

Pigeon Chest

(Editor's Note: Medical column—which Dr. Molner edited prior to his untimely death, will be continued by his wife, Mrs. Alice Molner, a doctor herself. All rights reserved. No part of this article may be reproduced without permission of the author.)

Dear Dr. Molner: Is "pigeon chest" (I don't know the medical name for it) just a deformity? What would cause it? And is there anything that could be done about it in an adult? — Mrs. A. H.

Pigeon chest (pectus carinatum) is a congenital deformity in which the breast bone protrudes outward. The cause is not known; some people are born with it, but not everyone.

The side of the chest may be drawn inward so that the contents of the chest may be somewhat displaced. Generally speaking, it is usually just a matter of appearance. Only in severe cases are there symptoms which can bother the person, and therefore in an adult the condition requires no treatment.

Surgical correction, if done at all, should be in early childhood, before the chest wall becomes fixed.

The opposite type of chest deformity also occurs—with the breast bone drawn inward. It is called pectus excavatum or funnel chest.

The same general rule holds for that too: no surgical correction should be done while the patient isn't a small child.

The principal difference is that funnel chest is more likely to cause crowding of the contents of the chest if the condition is severe, that is.

Dear Dr. Molner: Thank you for your book, "Gout: The Modern Way To Stop It." I'm on my way to recovery. I have one more week's supply of and a huge bottle of which the doctor says I must take for the rest of my life. I didn't realize how two drs. I am taking listed in your booklet had different names. If they are among the latest—L. H. W.

Don't let the nomenclature bother you; some of the very useful drugs appear under somewhat different names, and you may have to read the fine print at times to find the generic terms which, as a rule, I use in my writing.

They drove to a Moscow suburb, and there, the policeman made his proposition. "What would you do?" he asked the agent. "If the United States had $50,000 deposited in a numbered account in a Swiss bank, as the agent reported it to his contact, he made a split-second decision. He knew he could not trust the policeman, but to give in to him would be blackmailing the rest of his life.

Nixon, as president, to have a series of personal meetings with the top men of the United States taking unilateral action in foreign countries, as in Vietnam.

He believes the primary responsibility for containing Cuba should be with the Organization of American States or by regional security agreements by Latin powers. The United States, he said, must such a multilateral arrangement, not the Duveline Republic.

In Asia, if Nixon has his way, United States must meet forces with the Arab world. He believes America must be prepared to talk to Nasser in Egypt. He thinks that while those talks are going on, the United States must develop influence with moderate Arabs.

Nixon favors a Middle East development program in which a series of nuclear desalting plants would supply arid Arab countries with fresh water. He estimated that nuclear power could add 1,000 million miles of arable land and large amounts of cheap electricity, stimulating high-productivity agriculture and new industry, raising Arab living standards and providing jobs for Arab refugees.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 43 years old, a man and a virgin, but intend to marry soon. At this age is it possible to have a happy sex life? You recommend marrying at all this late in life? — T. J.

I don't know of any reason why you shouldn't marry at this age, and why you shouldn't have a satisfactory sexual adjustment. Just keep in mind, like anyone else, that with while, improves with practice and knowledge. I'd suggest getting one of the better books on the subject. One good one is called "Private and Personal."

RAY CROMLEY

Peace-Keeper?

WASHINGTON (NEA) — It is already clear that Nixon as president will be no warhawk in world affairs.

In Vietnam he is record as favoring a peace in which members of the Viet Cong could remain and participate in government, providing they gave up the use of force and agreed to accept democratic processes. He is, however, against a coalition government as unworkable.

From all that can be learned, Nixon wants, as president, to have a series of personal meetings with the top men of the United States taking unilateral action in foreign countries, as in Vietnam.

Nixon has said: "Other nations must recognize that the role of the United States in world politics is likely to be limited in the future.... In every instance where an Asian nation comes under attack or is threatened, we must not automatically assume the burden of defense as we did in Korea and Vietnam."

That big bony hump you mention can be drug combination, not necessarily combined, for easing the intensity of an attack, and probed, which is one of the modern and highly effective ones for reducing your heel level and preventing future attacks. (Allopurinol is another good one.)

The important point is that with modern medication you are learning that, while not cure, it can be prevented from making it savor and painful attacks. (Others interesting in this regard are the use of ibuprofen, 20 cent., 10 cent., and a long, soft addressed, stamped envelope to cover cost of printing and handling).

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 43 years old, a man and a virgin, but intend to marry soon. At this age is it possible to have a happy sex life? You recommend marrying at all this late in life? — T. J.

I don't know of any reason why you shouldn't marry at this age, and why you shouldn't have a satisfactory sexual adjustment. Just keep in mind, like anyone else, that with while, improves with practice and knowledge. I'd suggest getting one of the better books on the subject. One good one is called "Private and Personal."

U.S. Will Avoid Missile Conclave

UNITED NATIONS. N.Y. General Assembly's main political body — the United States is expected to sidestep mounting pressure to commit itself to immediate talks between Washington and Moscow on limiting nuclear missiles.

The U.S. disengagement negotiator, William Foster, is scheduled to spell out the U.S. position on the arms question today in the General Assembly.

The sources said there has been no change in the administration's stand since the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia, and the new Russian policy for Eastern Europe had dealt a severe setback to any U.S.-Soviet detente.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said recently that the administration "is deeply concerned over Soviet documents which Moscow made itself a bitter target of the actions of East European countries."

Rusk told newsmen that Soviet policy has damaged "a good many efforts that were being made to resolve particular problems in the general field of East-West relations."

U.S. sources said it was not known here whether the State Department has discussed the idea of U.S.-Soviet arms talks with representatives of President-elect Richard M. Nixon.

There has been continuing concern between the administration and Nixon's representatives; and it is known the government's stand on the overall arms issue has received bipartisan support.

Soviet Ambassador Jacob Malik told the committee last week he did not believe the U.S. would take immediate action on nuclear disarmament, but he appeared to have little hope of starting them before Nixon takes office.

Workers who assisted the blood committee chairman, Mrs. Wallace B. Smith, and members of the donor corps, Mrs. Bill Mathers, Mrs. Bill Mathers, Mrs. Lyle Lyles, Mrs. Lloyd Shewmaker, Mrs. Harold Honstead, Mrs. R. C. Mayer and Mrs. Leonard Kuhn.

Mrs. Onassis In U.S. For Anniversary

NEW YORK (AP) — Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis returned to the United States Monday for the first time since her marriage to Greek shipping tycoon Aristotle Onassis more than a month ago. She was staying for the time being.

Her arrival aboard a scheduled transatlantic jetline assured that Mrs. Onassis would be with her two children on Friday, the fifth anniversary of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Mrs. Onassis had no comment as she left the airport.

Earlier, Mrs. Onassis said her new husband will join her here later. Now just a month ago Monday that the 38-year-old presidential widow flew off to the Greek island of Scopelos where on Oct. 20 she was married to the 82-year-old financier, one of the world's richest men.

Mrs. Onassis' two children, Caroline Kennedy, 10, and John F. Kennedy, Jr., 7, flew with her and attended the wedding. A few days later they were flown back to New York to resume their private school classes.

MAJ. LEWIS L. McCOLLOUGH, who recently returned from an assignment at Udorn Royal Thai Air Force Base, Thailand, has been given 100 hours of flying over North Vietnam to address the Highmore High School students.

His appearance was part of the Individualized Learning Center's program to have faculty make maximum use of resource personnel within the area. Maj. McCollough, who is stationed at Mountain Home, discussed tactical reconnaissance Air Force operations in Southeast Asia, the hillsides of Thailand, and is a member of the 87th Tactical Reconnaissance Wing Speakers Bureau, which provides qualified speakers to address civilian and military groups.

Miss Roice had been in Europe since Sept. 28 and visited Scotland, England and Belgium before visiting her brother.

Army Pvt. James L. Kimball, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Kimball, Route 3, Buhl, completed a light-vehicle driver course at Ft. Ord, Calif., Nov. 7. During the five-week course, he was trained in the operation and maintenance of military vehicles up to and including the two and one-half ton truck. Instruction was also given in the operation of the internal combustion engine and chassis assembly.

Army Pvt. David L. Gillett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Gillett, Deeto, completed nine weeks of advanced training Nov. 4 at Ft. Polk, La. His last week of training was spent in guerrilla warfare exercises. During his guerrilla training, he lived under simulated Vietnam conditions for five days, fighting off night attacks, including raids, and learned small-unit tactics, map reading, land mine warfare, taught methods of removing communications and firing the booby traps, setting ambushes, M-16 rifle, M-60 machine gun and avoiding enemy ambuses, and the 3.5-inch rocket launcher.

Seminary Student Asks $1.25 Million In 'Brutality' Suit

CHICAGO, (AP) — A seminary student has sued the city of Chicago and several of its top officials for $1.25 million in damages, charging he was beaten by police during Democratic National Convention week disorders.

The suit was filed Monday by the American Civil Liberties Union in behalf of Roy L. Ries Jr., of Levittown, Pa., a student at McCormick Theological Seminary.

Ries suffered a fractured skull when he said unidentified police officers struck him twice on the head with a gun butt in Lincoln Park the night of Aug. 22.

Named in the suit, filed in U.S. District Court, were the city; Mayor Richard J. Daley; Police Supt. James B. Conlisk; Deputy Supt. James Rochford; commander Clarence Braasch and other unidentified patrolmen.

The suit claimed Ries and some clergymen decided to wear their clerical collars and remands bearing a cross to Lincoln Park, where a crowd of antiwar demonstrators had gathered.

Ries said the clergymen wanted to encourage the demonstrators to leave the park and to remain between the police and the demonstrators to prevent a confrontation.

The suit said police began a charge. Ries was struck with rifles. Ries was hospitalized for 12 days.

The suit alleges a violation of Ries' constitutional rights of freedom of association, assembly and religion under the First and 14th Amendments of the Constitution.

Goldwater May Regain Position On Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Barry Goldwater may not have to start at the bottom after all when he returns to the Senate in January.

Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., has offered to give Goldwater his seniority on the Senate Armed Services committee. If Tower succeeds, it will mean Kansas and Peter H. Dominick of Colorado, will let the Texan stay ahead of them.

Tower is fourth ranking member of the committee, on which the Republicans expect to gain at least one additional seat. Pearson ranks fifth and Domnick sixth.

Goldwater was fourth in line of five Republicans on the committee in 1964, when he gave up his Senate seat from Arizona to run for president.

Winning Speech Is Presented

Alice Jean Davis won the blue ribbon recently for her speech at the Magic Valley Toastmasters Club meeting.

The group met at the Colonial House.

Glenida Braga gave the topic and also gave the educational demonstration. Alida Strong was topic mistress.

The next meeting will be Dec. 12.

Reds Spurn Offer To Buy Information On Captive

By JOHN VINOUR

PARIS (AP) — An American offering $1 million for information about the Red Chinese prison here and waits for the Red Chinese to call.

The other prisoners are Really, they didn't in London, the Hague or Stockholm, and it doesn't seem likely they will call here either.

The man is Sol Friedman, a

Yonkers, N.Y., lawyer who is administrator of a $1 million fund for Redmond, an Americian who has been in Shanghai jails for the last 12 years on spy charges.

The money was raised by public subscription to buy Redmond's release. But since July

1967 the Red Chinese have cut off all news about him.

"We're now at the point where the money is for buying information," said Friedman.

"Is he dead or alive? How can we find out? His 72-year-old mother is literally tortured by not knowing."

Redmond, 48, also of Yonkers, was arrested in Shanghai in 1951 and sentenced to life imprisonment in 1954 on charges of espionage and "counterrevolutionary activities."

He said a committee appointed by the state board is studying a new series of health studies.

Some 200 persons attended the Saturday conference. The principal speaker was Dr. Lester

C. Clegg, director of Oregon State University.

He said sex education "is the most feared part of education.

We have been made to fear this part of our education ... like children selling 'Boo'."

Friedman, spokesman for the sponsoring IEA committee on child welfare and improvement of instruction said the purpose of the conference was not to present a specific sex education program but to obtain an exchange of ideas on what ought to be done.

Parking, Road Improvements Completed At Mormon Reservoir Near Fairfield

FAIRFIELD — Construction work for this fall has been about completed by the Fish and Game Department at Mormon Reservoir. The work has been done on the 40 acres of access property at the northwest corner of the reservoir near the dam.

Three big car and trailer parking areas have been leveled and graded. Hill Mormon units can be parked on the enlarged pads. A new 20-foot gravelled roadway has been built above the high-water mark and extends to the south end of the property. Fills were made across several inlets for the road to eliminate curves. A new fence has been built along private land at the southwest corner.

The work is being done by a heavy equipment crew from Salmon River Forests. The work includes trucks, a loader and a crew.

The property was purchased some sagebrush was cleared for parking. Some sanitary facilities and garbage cans were placed on the site.

The new plans call for the fencing off of the points to prevent trailer parking which has caused a refuse problem. All campers and trailers in the boat ramps and boat areas have been removed. The boat trailer parking space has been enlarged and the cattle guard removed and a new cattle guard placed on the road leading to the site.

The Prairie Power Co. has run lines to the parking areas and it is expected that electricity will be available this coming season.

Trespassing on private land and littering of private land has been a problem at this park. It is hoped that with the new construction and improvements that the public will abide by the rules that will be posted on signs.

HOPE Works For Christmas All Year

By SARAH BEEM
Times-News Correspondent

JEROME — Christmas that lasts all year is the motto of HOPE (Help Other People Everywhere), Jerome's new community service center. It is located at 335 West Main in a vacant service station which was generously donated for use by an individual citizen. All the items at the HOPE center are donated by generous concerned citizens of the Magic Valley.

Some small charges are made for items received to help cover the cost of mailing and other expenses and for postage. If the need is immediate, and the person is unable to pay, the need is still met, and a donation can be made later or the recipient may do mending, washing or ironing.

The center is open each afternoon except Sunday from 1 to 4:30 p.m. It is operated by volunteers who aid visitors, do mending and laundry, repair toys or whatever needs are done. Everyone is welcome to help. Everyone is welcome to help those who need a helping hand.

The seed that grew into HOPE was conceived when interested citizens became aware and wanted to do something about the needs of the adults and children at the local school camp. Through cooperation with the city council, the children were permitted to swim without charge at the local swimming pool. Swimming lessons were provided, clothing and household items were collected and distributed, and music, singing and dancing were provided for evenings of entertainment.

As time went on more people became involved and aware of needs in our local area and around the world. Thus, HOPE through the love and willingness of many people, became a reality.

HOPE officers were elected with Mrs. E. Stockton as president; Mrs. Marvin Moorhead vice president; Mrs. Genevieve Warren, treasurer; and Mrs. James Stotz, secretary.

The organization helps anyone who is in need and cooperates with local churches, civic organizations and any city, county, state or federal government that asks for their help. HOPE is a non-political, non-denominational and in no way connected with any government agency except in its concern for helping people.

The first opportunity to help came when a local family completed their home. Clothing and household items were needed and the community responded. Families in Jerome, Hazleton, Eden, Wendell, Hagerman, Buhl, Gooding and Twin Falls have found much needed clothing at a small fee or at no cost.

Foodstuffs have been received temporary supply of emergency food, transportation for elderly and ill have been provided and emergency baby-sitting has been provided. Bedding and household items such as laundry starches and washing machines have been supplied special cases.

Harvest time brought the Spanish American families back to the Labor Camp where housing is provided, but there were no clothes. In the fall, the HOPE again came to the aid and from donated curtains and material, helpers are making curtains for 200 windows which will be hung in the spring.

There are many other needs that HOPE will endeavor to fill. One of the most important needs for the migrant is education. All efforts are made to enroll the children in public school and provide extra tutoring where needed.

In the area of child and adult education, over 100 migrants and dependents are being participated. One of the most exciting possibilities has arisen when a very exceptional man, who is presently teaching at Mater-Cleric Seminary in Colbert, Wash., has spent 10 years in China, offered his services as a teacher for the migrants.

The only salary he requested was a bed, table, food, and an orange crate for his books. This is still in the dreaming stage but the man said, "anything the man needs." The man is a migrant.

Besides helping local families, several other projects have been completed. Recently Mrs. Marlene Brown took several boxes of boys' and young men's clothing to Idaho Youth Ranch. She also took an October truck load of warm clothing and a few household items was taken to the Fort Hall Indian Reservation.

"Happy Holidays in Vietnam," the overseas project personal items for the service members, and a radio station, books and pre-wedding kolaids—all kinds of clothing for refugee children, sewing supplies and small tools to be used in rebuilding their homes were collected through the schools and local merchants.

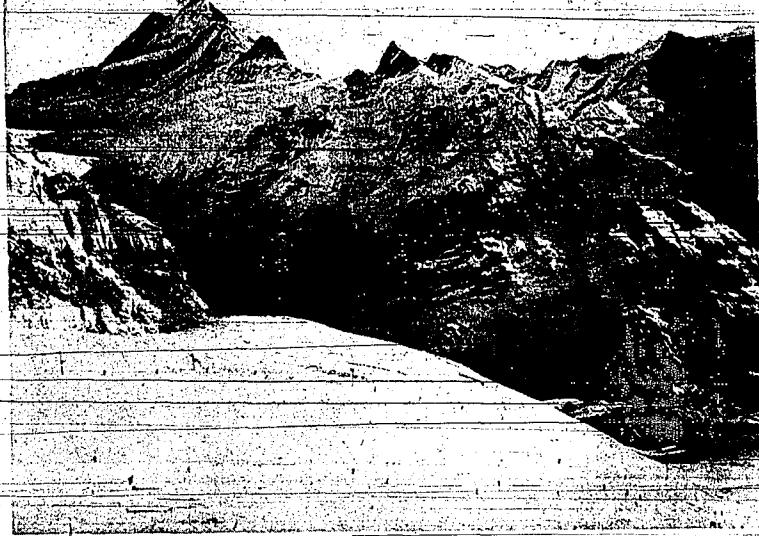

These things were sent to one of our own service units in Vietnam and will be distributed to the wounded and fighting men and to refugees in hospitals and orphanages.

Towels and dolls were brought to the HOPE open house and are still being used in these. These will be used at Christmas. Mrs. Jake Reichard is the doll doctor and deftly repairs any who have lost an arm or leg or needs new clothes. Jake Reichard is a new citizen and very popular toy for a "Merry Christmas for Everyone."

HOPE has prepared a number of boxes of clothing and blankets in cooperation with Church World Service.

On Dec. 7 and 8, a doll and toy sale will be held at the Ida Gem-Dairy Auditorium. The proceeds will be used to fill Christmas baskets.

Montego. So reasonably priced you can easily afford air conditioning.

(Not to mention power steering and other luxury options.)

Mercury Montego may be the best way to get passenger luxury without paying a lot for it.

The money you save over buying a size-larger luxury car can be used for many of the luxury options you want.

And most of these options, happily, cost you a bit less, too. That's because the optional units don't need to be quite as big as in a size-larger car.

For example, Montego air conditioning costs you about $45 less than in some full-size cars. Power steering about $20 less. Automatic transmission about $40 less.

And savings like these, you may want to add everything.

But don't get us wrong. The Montego is a well equipped, very luxurious car to start with. It's got that unmistakable touch that only the makers of the Lincoln Continental could create. You'll be very happy without any options. But it's nice to know that Mercury's reasonable price makes them so easy to own.

Tired of being bugged when the Color TV conks out?

Get the Color TV with the works in a drawer.

The works in a drawer: 10 tubeless solid-state mini-circuits for solid dependability. Quasar is Color TV that stays at home working, not in the repair shop.

The solid-state mini-circuit. It plugs in your home in minutes.

Have you been a color TV holdout? A little afraid of all the service problems? Hold out no more. Look into Quasar...color TV with the works in a drawer.

Just what is it that's made Quasar worth waiting for? (Other than a beautiful picture, great color and style?) Two important things. The dependability of solid-state electronics. And fast, at-home service you can only get when the works are in a drawer.

In Quasar, most components except the rectifier and picture tube are solid-state. They're tubeless mini-circuits...designed to work without burning themselves out. They plug in in minutes, if service is ever needed.

A serviceman simply opens the drawer at the front of the set. Snaps in a replacement circuit. Closes the drawer. And that's it. You might lose a few innings of viewing, but not much more. In most cases service is handled in your home, not the shop.

So, why look for another excuse? Go to your Motorola dealer and look into Quasar instead. We're so impressed with Quasar reliability, we've guaranteed it (everything, picture tube and chassis parts) for two years.

Bet you'll be impressed, too.

Two Year Registered Guarantee on Picture Tube and All Parts

REHEARSING TO GET IT "just right" are Star Adams, as Lady Larlein; Barry Rogers, as Sir Harry; and Marilee Smith, as Lady Larlein. The players will appear during the Minico high school opera production of "Once Upon a Mattress," scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday and some 70 students and faculty members are involved in the production.

Minico High School Slates "Once Upon A Mattress"

RUPERT—Many hours of rehearsals and preparation will climax Friday and Saturday with the production of the Broadway musical "Once Upon a Mattress," which is based on the story of the popular fairy tale, "The Princess and the Pea."

Beginning at 8 p.m. each evening at the Minico High School auditorium, some 70 students and faculty members from the music, drama and art departments at the school will set their efforts to make light as the curtain rises and the story unfolds.

The production is a fairy tale comedy and depicts the age-old dilemma of a doting mother selecting a suitable wife for her son. Queen Aggravain stops all marriages until her darling son finds a bride.

Finally, brave Sir Harry succeeds in finding a princess. A sensitivity test was decided upon to test the compatibility of the princess. Sensitive means being unable to sleep on 20 soft, downy mattresses with a tiny green pea under them. The results are hilariously shocking when the true story unfolds.

Adding to the merriment are the king, knight, dancers, matador, and various fairytale characters and the wizard.

The book was written by Jay Thompson, Marshall Barer and Tadd L. Nelson.

Barer, with lyrics by Marshall Barer and music by Mary Rodgers.

Also here, Minico music instructor is producer of the orchestra, and Peter Peterson, director, with Walter Durfee in charge of make-up. No. 1 ringer for retailers

21,618 paid circulation makes an impact you can hear all over your cash register!

T-N circulation gives your store advertising dominance in two ways: First, in the NUMBER OF HOMES reached - 21,618. Second, in the QUALITY of readership.

No other medium in Magic Valley gives you this DOUBLE IMPACT which pulls traffic, makes sales, puts your store ahead. Compare this with direct-mail or throw-away neighborhood handbills and "shoppers." Since no one PAYS to read them, how can you expect your message to be thoroughly read? Publications like these hit the doorstep - but do they hit the buyer? Look in the waste-basket and all over the yard for your answer.

In contrast, with the T-N your message comes in a newspaper that 73% of all the families in Magic Valley subscribe to ... read for news and advertised values "cover to cover." The ONLY medium which gets home, 8-counties wide.

What a difference that makes to your advertising - and your advertising dollar! NO WASTE. No unwanted throw-away circulation. Instead, solid, cumulative readership which leads to sales and leadership.

Ask the most successful businessmen in Twin Falls. You see them advertising in the Times-News day in and day out. Better, yet, ask yourself: Can your business afford anything less than the T-N, the one advertising medium which produces more?

Undefeated Penn State, Explosive Kansas Eye Orange Bowl Showdown

By The Associated Press
Undefeated Penn State, and explosive Kansas, landed at M.L. Carr's Orange Bowl Monday night. The Sugar and Cotton Bowls elected to match the 1-2 powers of the Southwest and Southeastern Conferences in the grabbed the Southeastern cham-

New Year's Day college football attractions. The Cotton Bowl plucked Tennessee to meet the underdog, while the Sugar and Cotton Bowls elected to match the 1-2 powers of the Southwest and Southeastern Conferences in the grabbed the Southeastern champlex, Georgia, and announced it would wait until Thanksgiving to choose a rival.

This was clear indication that the New Orleans sponsors preferred to await the outcome of Texas' final game against Texas A & M Nov. 28 which will determine the final Southwest standings.

If Arkansas should beat Texas Tech this weekend, and Texas should whip the Aggies, then Arkansas would get the Cotton Bowl spot because the Longhorns beat Arkansas during the season 39-29. A loss by both the leaders could throw the race into confusion with a broad range of alternatives.

With the passing of the noon (EST) deadline Monday imposed by the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the two bowls grabbed for available teams like starving guests at a board meeting house.

This was the result: ROSE BOWL—Southern California (8-0)—the winner of this week's game between Ohio State (8-4) and Michigan (8-1). Michigan City (7-3) beat nationally ranked No. 4, the Rose Bowl annually matched champions of the Big Ten and Pacific 8.

ORANGE BOWL—Penn State (6-4)—third-ranked nationally, as well as all three points, with three incorrect guesses. The $25, third place money is doubled to $50. $10 and $5. This, you might recall, is the contest I won about eight years ago. (ed's note: Only you remember that Major.)

Our champion for this week is Ellis Campbell, Kinston, who had only two and edged Charles B. Park, the ex-han-holder, in point prediction to claim the first prize of $10. Park consolers himself with $5 for second place.

Third place and the honorable mentions were decided by the point system as all tied with three incorrect guesses.

The $25, third place money is doubled to $50. $10 and $5.

Receiving honorable mentions are Dr. Thaddeus Scholz, Twin Falls, who, as far as recall, slipped into the bowl contest with three incorrect answers in the final contest last year. Joe Fowler, Heyburn; David Munro, Buhl; Paul Goethes, Hailey; Ray Baker, Twin Falls; Chester Campbell, Twin Falls, and Bert Bolinger, Twin Falls.

With this being the last time out of the bowl contest, we will take extra time and contemplation in studying this week's ballot. If you haven't the time, the best and easiest way would be to just write "ditto Hoople". As I don't plan to lose this week, Hoople!

And, for goodness sakes, don't eliminate yourself by trying to sit in under the Friday noon deadline. The field is limited and guarded until that time.

The assault on schools worked slowly as it soaked through the players' uniforms and padding. The players reported burns on the back, arms, legs and arm pits and hips.

Four Dartmouth players were hospitalized for the weekend when the team returned to Hanover. Released Monday, the players, as did most Saturday's winners at Penn, were fullback Dave Boyle, defensive back Murry Bowden, linebacker Rick Lease and defensive end Lou Marzanica.

None of the Cornell players was hospitalized... Musick said the most seriously injured were defensive ends Bob Pegan and Tom Fitzgerald, both of whom Charles Bitter and Rick Furbush Pegan was listed as the most doubtful for this week's game with Princeton.

Late Bid

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Missouri has received a late bid in the 24th annual Gator Bowl football game at Jacksonville Dec. 28.

The Gator Bowl Association announced the selection of 7-2 Missouri Monday night, but spokesman said the team will be invited if invited for a couple of days, informed sources reported. Alabama has been invited for the other spot, but Wyoming, Florida State University and Arizona also are believed to be on the list of possible teams.

Young Bentukla is a member of the local YMCA club, club members being the sport for three years. A total of 250 contestants were entered in the one-day affair, with entrants from as far away as Oregon, Idaho, and Nevada.

Bentukla won his trophy in the Juniors Division heavyweight bracket for 10-year-olds. He relayed to work hard to come up to this level of competition, noted his mother. T.L.A.C.E.S. three years of practice. Bentukla also received a medal similar to an Olympic medal for his efforts.

Olympic Star Gives Plaque To President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson got a first-hand look Monday at a former member of the Job Corps who made good—Olympic heavyweight boxer George Foreman, winner of a gold medal at the Mexican Games.

Johnson received from Foreman a plaque expressing appreciation "for fathering the Job Corps program and extending its opportunities to those young Americans who sorely need an avenue of hope, dignity and self-respect."

The Job Corps is an arm of the federal antipoverty program in which young men and women, mainly school dropouts, continue their education.

Foreman, 19, of Houston, went through only the ninth grade and was frequently in trouble with the law.

After receiving the plaque in his office from Foreman, Johnson told the young Negro: "you're an inspiration to all the young men in the country, particularly those in the Job Corps. All America is very proud of you."

Lime Burns' Dartmouth Players Up

HANOVER, N.H. (AP)—Four Dartmouth football players were sidelined and eight others burned Monday as the result of a lime solution used in a prank at last Saturday's game at Cornell.

Cornell Coach Jack Musick reported in Ithaca, N.Y.—that 12 of his players suffered burns in the game won by Dartmouth 27-6.

The lime was used to make an outline of a "Bunny"—the symbol of a chain of night spots across the country—at midfield. The lime was wet from snow and rain and the lime soaked into the turf.

Musick said groundskeepers believed the lime was nonfouling and everyone thought the matter a joke until players started complaining after the game. The lime apparently was placed in the field after 3 a.m. Saturday. The field is expected to be gauged until next time.

The assault on schools worked slowly as it soaked through the players' uniforms and padding. The players reported burns on the back, arms, legs and arm pits and hips.

Four Dartmouth players were hospitalized for the weekend when the team returned to Hanover. Released Monday, the players, as did most Saturday's winners at Penn, were fullback Dave Boyle, defensive back Murry Bowden, linebacker Rick Lease and defensive end Lou Marzanica.

None of the Cornell players was hospitalized... Musick said the most seriously injured were defensive ends Bob Pegan and Tom Fitzgerald, both of whom Charles Bitter and Rick Furbush Pegan was listed as the most doubtful for this week's game with Princeton.

Bill Nelsen Is New Brown Hero

By MARTY RALBONSKY

CLEVELAND (NEA)—Bill Nelsen unlimped his green warmup jacket but didn't bother to take it off.

He lowered his ample body into a folding chair, picked up a football and toyed with it without ceremony, pandering with it, as it was like Cleveland's newest hero.

"I'm sure Frank is not happy with the position he's in," says Nelsen. "But he has gone out of his way to help me. He's just one of those guys that happens in football, and I've part of it."

Jim Houston, veteran linebacker and Browns' captain, says Nelsen has had an effect on the defense, too.

"We know he's going to put some points on the scoreboard, even on a bad day. His presence has changed the entire atmosphere on this team. We're thinking like winners now. Be Nelsen rode the bench."

"I simply resigned myself to the facts," Nelsen said. "Ryan was Number One, and I was Number Two."

After three games, the Browns were staggering. They had lost two of them. The offense wasn't moving. The passing game was stopped cold. Morale was sagging. A change was imminent.

Frank Ryan, who had guided the Browns for five years, was going to be replaced by coach Keith Morris. Morris had been with the team for three years. A total of 250 contestants were entered in the one-day affair, with entrants from as far away as Oregon, Idaho, and Nevada.

Bentukla won his trophy in the Juniors Division heavyweight bracket for 10-year-olds. He relayed to work hard to come up to this level of competition, noted his mother. T.L.A.C.E.S. three years of practice. Bentukla also received a medal similar to an Olympic medal for his efforts.

The game, needless to say, paid off.

Under the leadership of Nelsen, the Browns have become a brand-new team. The turning-point came when they visited Baltimore to take on the then-undefeated Colts, who were heavy favorites. The Browns won, 30-20.

Nelsen passed for three touchdowns, 137 yards, though the air, and had bad luck doing it for years. Since then, the change has become permanent. Nelsen is now Number One; Ryan Number Two.

"The will over the Colts did a lot for this team," says Nelsen. "I think I played a big role in that. I think we're better now. We're back up to gain the trust and respect of a club, but everything seemed to fall into place that day. We emerged not only with a victory, but with an entire new outlook for the rest of the season."

"More than anything else, Nelsen has been the big spark for us," he says. He has done fine job, not only in directing the offense, but in terms of over-all leadership. He's the boss out there and the rest of the players know it, yet remainder agree.

Rash Of Injuries Falls On NFL's Quarterbacks; Chicago Is Hardest Hit

NEW YORK (AP) — Injuries, ankle-in-a-16-13 defeat by Atlanta, continue to cut deep into the ranks of the pro quarterbacks. In the second major injury this month for the Bears, who lost halfback Gale Sayers last week due to torn Dallas' Don Meredith, Cincinnati's Sam Wyche and Denver's Steve Tensi, the latest to go down, down for the count. Carter suffered a broken right arm from Brigham Young who took over after Jack Concannon was put out of action with a broken collarbone, will be lost for eight to 10 weeks.

The pair of injuries, plus the defeat by Atlanta, knocked the Bears out of first place in the Central Division of the National Football League and left them in a precarious position with only four games to play.

Meredith was cut down at Washington when a Redskin lineman rolled him on a pass rush. The Cowboys' ace passer suffered a muscle tear in his left knee. He was doubtful about his team's game against the Rams, but said he could miss no more than one game if any.

Denver lost Tensi again with a broken left collarbone in a 35-17 defeat at Houston. The same collar-bone was broken in a previous game against the Rams, marking his first start in seven weeks after undergoing an appendectomy, led Houston to victory.

Although Bill Nelsen left the game in Pittsburgh with a slight ankle injury and Fred Ryan finished Cleveland's 24-17 win over the Browns, he added this: "Never before will I be right for the Philadelphia game."

The most prominent quarterback on the sidelines, of course, is John Unitas of the Baltimore Colts. Earl Morrall took over during his absence, when a right elbow (tendonitis) forced him to step aside. Unitas has been back for two brief appearances while Morrall has led the Colts to first place in the Coastal Division of the NFL.

The quarterbacks weren't the only ones to get hurt. New York's lost fullback Billy Joe for the season due to a knee injury in the game at Oakland. St. Louis lost defensive back Jerry Stovall (right knee) and guard Ken Gray (right eye), Los Angeles' Dick Bass (hamstring and bruised back) was injured in the game. The New York Giants lost Jim Katcavage (hamstring) in the first quarter of their game with the Eagles but the Kat says he'll be back for the Rams Sunday.

Bruce Lee Is WAC Player Of The Week

By the Associated Press
Arizona quarterback Bruce Lee caught fire in the fourth quarter Saturday with his team trailing 15-0 and completed 13 of 27 passes, two for touchdowns, to give the Wildcats a 17-13 victory over Utah.

He was named the Western Athletic Conference football offensive player of the week.

Lee edges Wyoming
Five times in the final quarter Lee threw on third and long yardage situations. Five times past were completed and five times the down was made. His scoring tosses covered 63 and 21 yards.

Lee edged Wyoming, fullback Dave Hampton and New Mexico's versatile Rick Beiter for the offensive player honor. Other nominees were University of Colorado's Steve Mays, Arizona State center George Hammer, Colorado State University split end Terry Swain and Brigham Young split end Ed Reimero.

Hampton had his best day of the year, with 180 yards, rushing 26 times for four touchdowns—14 of which—the consecutive game he has gathered 100 or more yards.

Beiter had 134 yards rushing Saturday and played as quarterback, tailback and split end. Molnar had 71 yards rushing on a 100-yard field and was credited by his coach with effective blocking.

The Czechs sent two amateurs to the 1968 World Cup and they bravely shot 85% for 72 holes as a combined total, 80 above par. They have only two courses in the country and the 500 Czechoslovakians who play are mostly professionals. It means they drive 75 miles or so just to swing a club.

If the World Cup would invite the Soviet Union to join the collection of nations, Tournament Director Fred Corcoran hoped he could get them to do it.

"That is a subject to be taken up later."

There are no golf courses in Russia. There once was a nine-hole layout in Leningrad, but events in 1917 turned it into a potato patch.

The triumph of the Czechs was hardly all sport. At British Open, with 274, which was 14 under par, George Kaudon on 285, turned up a total of 500, seven under par for the 6,950 yard 72 Oldgata course.

The United States team of Lee Trevino and Julius Boros won record on 371, five under par.

Redskin Coach Has No Sympathy

LONDON (AP) — Al Oerter, honored here Monday as the outstanding individual athlete of the Olympic Games in Mexico City, predicted he might have to hurl the discus 240 feet to win a fifth straight gold medal in 1972.

FINESSE OFFERS BEST CHANCE

Today's hand appears in the wind up with only eight tricks since the best he can do will be to make six diamonds and two aces.

South is in with the ace of hearts and he goes after the diamonds right away. South will wind up with only eight tricks since the best he can do will be to make six diamonds and two aces.

South must take the club diamonds before attacking diamonds. He leads the queen of clubs. If West ruffs, South comes back to his hand with the jack; if West ducks, South is still in his hand. Now he can try the diamond finesse and, since that works also, he will have nine tricks.

South's play was a desperate one. He needed two more aces and if he went down he would be down several tricks at three no-trump—but it is mighty good policy to take almost any risk at all in order to make an undoubled contract. Certainly a one-in-four chance is worth taking and the chance that two finesses will work is one in four.

CARD-SENSE
The bidding has been:
West North East South
1♦ Pass 1♦ Pass 1♦ Pass
Pass 2♦ Pass 3NT Pass
Pass
Opening lead: ♦3

One—he might well have dropped the bidding at two diamonds and North would have bid three diamonds instead of three no-trump but South finds himself at three no-trump and it is up to him to try to make it.

He starts by playing dummy's jack of hearts at trick one. This does no good since East produces the queen. He lets the queen hold. Sometimes an opportunity like enough to an experienced player is a matter of fact. East does lead his king of spades but this doesn't help South one bit because East's next play is a heart.
